*The classes of assets required for the investment of minimum capital of domestic companies do not include these securities. Since the company's investments in these classes do not equal the required amount, the New York State Insurance Law requires that these bonds be disallowed as assets.

"The department has been informed by the company that the Miami Conservancy District Interim Certificates have been sold for $20,262.00. Had this sale been consummated prior to December 31, 1920, the surplus would have been $149,207.78."

* The Superintendent of Insurance took possession of the company pursuant to an order of the Supreme Court made and entered in the office of the Clerk of New York County on the 20th day of September, 1921, dissolving the company and directing the Superintendent of Insurance to liquidate its business and affairs under and pursuant to Section 63 of the Insurance Law. The order directing the liquidation provided that all outstanding policy obligations of said corporation be terminated and that all liability for loss thereunder cease upon the procurement by policyholders respectively of new insurance covering their risks insured thereby and in any event at 12 o'clock midnight standard time at New York, N. Y., between the 26th and 27th days of September, 1921, and that all contracts and other obligations of said corporation shall cease and expire and the rights and liabilities of all persons be fixed as of midnight standard time New York, N. Y., of the 26th day of September, 1921.

Name of this company was changed on April 6, 1921, to United States Mutual Automobile Casualty Company.
